March 16, 2015, read first time and referred to Committee on Rules and Legislative Procedures.

A HOUSE RESOLUTION urging the Legislative Council to assign the review of the primary process to the Elections and Apportionment Committee during the 2015 interim.

Whereas, Over the years, there has been discussion regarding the primary election process in Indiana;

Whereas, Now may be the time for Indiana to take another look at how we select candidates for the general election;

Whereas, Several topics that may be discussed are the cost of the primary election, the low turnout, the time the election is held, and if the selection of party candidates should be funded by the county; and

Whereas, At this time, it would be prudent to further study these issues in order to improve the process: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

- 1 SECTION 1. That the Legislative Council is urged to assign the
- 2 review of the primary process to the Elections and Apportionment
- 3 Committee during the 2015 interim.
